

On April 28, 1758, our 5th President, James Monroe, was born. Monroe was a law apprentice for Thomas Jefferson. Being an apprentice allows someone to train and become skilled in a trade or profession. What type of trade or profession would you be interested in completing an apprenticeship for?